GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL COMMITTEE

This is informed to all staff and students that the Grievance Redressal Committee for the academic year 2023-24 is formed with the following members for addressing concerns from students, faculty, and staff. Committed to transparency and fairness, the committee aims to provide a confidential platform for grievance resolution. By fostering open communication, the committee seeks to investigate complaints, recommend solutions, and contribute to the ongoing enhancement of institutional policies. This initiative underscores our commitment to maintaining a supportive and inclusive academic environment for all members of our community. The committee members are advised to conduct meetings, arrange activities and prepare necessary documents to fulfill the participative management and decentralization of power for smooth running of the college.
